

The Archdiocesan Commission for Women

invites you to a talk on

theaustralian.com.au

Refugees: their hopes and concerns

Presenter:
Sr Jane Keogh CSB

Jane Keogh is a Brigidine Sister living in Canberra. She is a refugee advocate and volunteer, has visited Baxter detention centre (99 times) and has worked with asylum seekers who were in Woomera, Curtin, Villawood and Nauru. She knows many refugees personally. She knows their stories.

When	Wednesday 20 August, 7.30pm
Where	Rheinberger Centre, Cnr Weston & Loch Sts, Yarralumla
Cost	$5 to cover the Commission's costs
Inquiries to	Judy Netting 6278 4163 or 0400 766 784

All welcome

The Archdiocesan Commission for Women

invites you to a talk on

theaustralian.com.au

Refugees: their hopes and concerns

Presenter:
Sr Jane Keogh CSB

Jane Keogh is a Brigidine Sister living in Canberra. She is a refugee advocate and volunteer, has visited Baxter detention centre (99 times) and has worked with asylum seekers who were in Woomera, Curtin, Villawood and Nauru. She knows many refugees personally. She knows their stories.

When	Wednesday 20 August, 7.30pm
Where	Rheinberger Centre, Cnr Weston & Loch Sts, Yarralumla
Cost	$5 to cover the Commission's costs
Inquiries to	Judy Netting 6278 4163 or 0400 766 784

All welcome

