

Christians for an Ethical Society

Working Group of Churches Together NSW-ACT
Associate Member of ACT Churches' Council Inc
President - Bishop George Browning

2013 Forum Series on
"Political and economic conventional wisdom:
as immoral as it is unintelligent"

Child protection: getting it right

Mary Ivec

Regulatory Institutions Network
ANU College of Asia & the Pacific

Mary has 25 years of experience in human services ranging from government, the not-for-profit sector and community development. This has involved clinical practice as a mental health social worker, lecturing in social work education, and research on the application of restorative justice and responsive regulation in child protection. Her long-term work has been in the area of trauma and torture counselling, cross-cultural mental health and families involved with statutory child protection services. Over the past five years she worked on the Regulation, Child Protection and Building Capacity in the Community and in Child Protection Systems project.

Thursday 30 May 7.30 pm

at Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
Blackall St (corner Kings Ave), Barton, ACT

The forum will seek to encourage discussion from the floor - $5 Donation requested to cover hall costs
Christians for an Ethical Society is an autonomous mainstream Christian organisation (refer www.ces.org.au)
Contact Information: Bill Bush 6257 1786

Supported by:  Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture

Christians for an Ethical Society

Working Group of Churches Together NSW-ACT
Associate Member of ACT Churches' Council Inc
President - Bishop George Browning

2013 Forum Series on
"Political and economic conventional wisdom:
as immoral as it is unintelligent"

Child protection: getting it right

Mary Ivec

Regulatory Institutions Network
ANU College of Asia & the Pacific

Mary has 25 years of experience in human services ranging from government, the not-for-profit sector and community development. This has involved clinical practice as a mental health social worker, lecturing in social work education, and research on the application of restorative justice and responsive regulation in child protection. Her long-term work has been in the area of trauma and torture counselling, cross-cultural mental health and families involved with statutory child protection services. Over the past five years she worked on the Regulation, Child Protection and Building Capacity in the Community and in Child Protection Systems project.

Thursday 30 May 7.30 pm

at Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
Blackall St (corner Kings Ave), Barton, ACT

The forum will seek to encourage discussion from the floor - $5 Donation requested to cover hall costs
Christians for an Ethical Society is an autonomous mainstream Christian organisation (refer www.ces.org.au)
Contact Information: Bill Bush 6257 1786

Supported by:  Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture