Working Group of Churches Together NSW-ACT
Associate Member of ACT Churches' Council Inc
President - Reverend Professor James Haire AC

2014 Forum Series on Responsible Citizenship

Overturning Tables, Knocking off Heads of State & Other Ways of being Responsible Christian Citizens

Rev. Professor James Haire AC

Professor of Theology at Charles Sturt University, Director of the Public and Contextual Theology Research Centre in Canberra and former Executive Director of the Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture.

Professor Haire's address will cover Christians' understanding of their life together - within the local community, the nation state and the world.

He will examine the potential conflict between loyalty in a nation state and in a local community. In particular, he will analyse how Christians can explain their actions and concerns to fellow citizens to gain their support

Chair: Bishop George Browning

Wednesday 26 February 7.30 pm

at Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
Blackall St (corner Kings Ave), Barton, ACT

The forum will seek to encourage discussion from the floor - $5 Donation requested to cover hall costs
