Working Group of Churches Together NSW-ACT
Associate Member of ACT Churches' Council Inc
President - Reverend Dr Thorwald Lorenzen

2015 Forum Series on
Equity and the Human Family

Budget Equity?

Paul Bongiorno AM

Distinguished journalist

A journalist for forty years, Paul Bongiorno has won four national Walkley Awards for journalistic excellence. Originally covering Queensland state politics for ten years at Channel Ten Brisbane, he has been a member of the federal parliamentary press gallery for the past twenty seven years, for seventeen of which he was Ten's Bureau Chief and host of the national political program Meet The Press.

Currently, a Contributing Editor for Network Ten, he writes weekly columns for The Saturday Paper and other publications, as well as being a regular commentator on ABC Radio National. He also has a master's degree in theology from the Pontifical Urban University, Rome.

Paul will discuss the 2015 Federal Budget and its likely effects, with a focus on whether it provides a fair go for all or whether it will exacerbate inequity in our society.

Chair: Bishop George Browning

Thursday 21 May 7.30 pm

Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
Blackall St (corner Kings Ave), Barton, ACT

The forum will seek to encourage discussion from the floor - $5 Donation requested to cover hall costs
Christians for an Ethical Society is an autonomous mainstream Christian organisation (refer www.ces.org.au)
