Hope and Peace

A/Prof. David Neville

Head of Charles Sturt University
School of Theology

On this eve of Anzac Day which "commemorates Australians and New Zealanders who served and died in all wars, conflicts and peace keeping operations" Dr Neville will speak on peace, hope, violence and war. Christianity is often projected as a religion of violence or a religion that justifies war. However, an examination of the New Testament reveals the "non-violent Jesus". Dr Neville recently published The Vehement Jesus.

Chair: Reverend Dr Thorwald Lorenzen
