The Cost of War, the Price of Peace

OCT – NOV 2011

Canberra Event

The Inventiveness of Nonviolence: a Gospel Perspective

When?

5.30pm Wednesday
2 November 2011

Where?

Signadou Campus
223 Antill St
Watson ACT

ALSO TOURING WITH KATHY

At certain venues only, members of Afghan Youth Peace Volunteers (AYPV) will join Kathy to share their experiences of life in Afghanistan

The AYPV are young people living in a war-torn country. Like Gandhi, they have a resolute commitment to nonviolence, non-killing and the well-being of ALL people.

ABOUT KATHY

*Nominated three times for
The Nobel Peace Prize*

Described as probably the most respected leader in the American peace movement. Kathy has invested her life in search of non-military solutions to end wars, often at great personal cost. Kathy has lived in war zones, sharing the dangers with civilians in Nicaragua, Gaza, Bosnia, Iraq, and Afghanistan.
