CLYDE CAMERON MEMORIAL LECTURE 2012 by PROFESSOR JOHN BANNON

“Wage Justice & Income Disparity: The Cameron Principles”

+Henry George Seminar: “Lessons from Latvia: why a higher GST will not save the economy.”

Saturday 13th October, 9am-1pm, University House Hall, 1 Balmain Crescent, ANU.

Keynote Speaker: the Hon Dr John Bannon AO

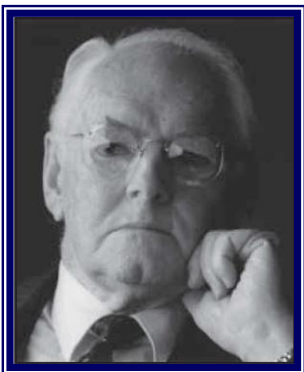

The Hon Dr. John Bannon is currently Adjunct Professor of Law at Adelaide University specialising in constitutional history and federal/state relations and immediate past President of the History Council of South Australia. He has a PhD in history from Flinders University and recently published a biography of Sir John Downer, ‘Supreme Federalist’. John Bannon served as a senior advisor to the Hon Clyde R. Cameron during the years of the Whitlam Government. From 1977 to 1993 he was a member of the South Australian Parliament and was Premier of South Australia from 1982 to 1992. He was made an Officer of the Order of Australia in 2007. John Bannon is also Chairman of the National Archives of Australia Advisory Council.

Seminar Guest Speaker: Dr Terry Dwyer PhD

Dr. Terry Dwyer graduated with honours in Arts and Economics from Sydney University and earned his PhD from Harvard University in the history of taxation theory. He has wide experience in advising on tax policy in the Australian Federal Treasury, Prime Minister’s Department and Economic Planning Advisory Council. He has advised Australian and international clients, including other governments. Terry has prepared submissions and papers for government, industry and academic institutions (eg. Henry Tax Review). Free audio CD copies of his 2010 speech “Is Taxation Immoral?” will be available at the Seminar.

Who was Clyde Cameron?

The Hon. Clyde R. Cameron (1913-2008) started his working life as a rouseabout and shearer and rose to become arguably Australia’s greatest ever Minister for Labour as part of the Whitlam Labor Government from 1972-1975. Mr. Cameron was a great Australian statesman who truly understood political economy and who devoted his life to securing just rewards for Australian workers. A few months before he passed away, Mr Cameron stated his belief that there would soon be a mass resurgence of support in Australia for the principles and economic truths as enunciated by Henry George (1839-1897). Free audio CD copies of Mr Cameron’s 1984 speech, “How Labor Lost its Way” will be available at the Memorial Lecture.
