

St Vincent de Paul Society
good works

The St Vincent de Paul Society National Council of Australia is proud to present the

4th Annual Gerald Ward Lecture on Social Justice

"How do we design a dignified welfare safety net without becoming a Nanny State – lessons from Catholic Social Teaching"

Lecture to be delivered by Fr Frank Brennan

Frank Brennan is a committed advocate for human rights, having worked tirelessly for others for over 30 years and has won a number of human rights awards.

Response by Professor Jon Altman

Jon Altman is ARC Australian Professorial Fellow at the Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research at the ANU. He has a disciplinary background in economics and anthropology.

The lecture will be held at the National Library, Canberra at 6.30pm on Friday 18th November, 2011

Admission is free and the lecture will be followed by light refreshments.

Visit: www.vinnies.org.au for more details or phone 02 6202 1200.